It is unlawful for a person to guide without having a current valid guide license and Alaska hunting license in actual possession.

DEFINITIONS

Natural Person, means a living, breathing human being, as opposed to a legal entity such as a corporation.

Resident AS 16.05.940(27), means a person who for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made has maintained the person's domicile in the state and who is neither claiming residency in another state, territory, or country nor obtaining benefits under a claim of residency in another state, territory, or country; a partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or corporation that has its main office or headquarters in the state; a natural person who does not otherwise qualify as a resident under this paragraph may not qualify as a resident by virtue of an interest in a partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or corporation; a member of the military service, or United States Coast Guard, who has been stationed in the state for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made; a person who is the dependent of a resident member of the military service, or the United States Coast Guard, and who has lived in the state for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made; or an alien who for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made has maintained the person's domicile in the state and who is neither claiming residency in another state, territory, or country nor obtaining benefits under a claim of residency in another state, territory, or country.

An Assistant Guide:

1. May not contract to guide or outfit a big game hunt;
2. Shall be employed by a Registered Guide-Outfitter and under the supervision of a Registered Guide-Outfitter or Class-A Assistant Guide while the Assistant Guide is in the field on guided hunts; and
3. May not take charge of a camp or provide guide activities unless the contacting Registered Guide-Outfitter is in the field participating in the contacted hunt or a Registered Guide-Outfitter or Class-A employed by the contracting guide is physically present and supervising the hunt.

BE ADVISED

The Big Game Commercial Services Board will seek maximum penalties for big game commercial services license holders who are found to have violated a hunting, guiding and/or transportation services statute or regulation.

Pilot Experience Requirements

If you personally pilot an aircraft to transport clients during the provisions of big game commercial hunting services, you must show proof of a current commercial pilot's license or 500 hours of flying time in the state (AS 08.54.680(b)).

Law Enforcement Officers

If you are a fish and game law enforcement officer for the State of Alaska, United States Department of the Interior or the United State Department of Agriculture, you may not hold or earn experience credits to apply for a Registered Guide-Outfitter license while you are a law enforcement officer and for three months after termination status as a law enforcement officer (AS 08.54.640 (a)).

Game Biologists

A person who holds any class of guide license and who is employed by the Department of Fish and Game or a federal wildlife management agency may not, while employed by the department or agency as a game or wildlife biologist and for 12 months after leaving employment with the department or agency as a game management or wildlife biologist, engage in providing big game hunting services in a game management unit in which the person conducted game or wildlife management or research activities for the department of agency at any time during the preceding 12 months (AS 08.54.640(c)).

GENERAL INFORMATION

Social Security Numbers

Alaska Statutes (AS) 08.01.060(b) and 08.01.100(e) require an applicant for an occupational license to provide a United States Social Security Number. However, if you do not have a social security number issued to you, you may qualify for an exception. Contact the division and request a "Request for Exception from Social Security Number Requirement" (Form 08-4372) to be mailed to you. If you qualify for a license without a social security number, you will be required at each renewal to again complete the form and mail it with your renewal application. Contact the division at the address noted on this application.

Renewal

Renewal notices are mailed at least 30 days prior to the license expiration. It is the licensee's responsibility to ensure renewal of the license. Please contact the division if you have a change of address. Failure to receive a renewal notice does not excuse nonrenewal.

Abandoned Applications

Under 12 AAC 02.910, an application is considered abandoned when 12 months have elapsed since correspondence was last received from or on behalf of the applicant. An abandoned application is denied without prejudice and the application fee is forfeited.

Payment of Child Support and Student Loans

If the Alaska Child Support Enforcement Division has determined that you are in arrears on child support, or if the Alaska Commission on Post-Secondary Education has determined you are in loan default, you may be issued a nonrenewable temporary license valid for 150 days. Contact Child Support Services at (907) 269-6900 or the Post-Secondary Education office at (907) 465-2962 or 1-800-441-2962 to resolve payment issues.

Please be aware that all information on this form will be available to the public, unless required to be kept confidential by state or federal law. In addition, current licensee information is available on the division's website at: www.commerce.state.ak.us/occ under "License Search."

Alaska State Troopers Department of Public Safety

The Department of Public Safety, Criminal Records and Identification (R & I) Bureau maintains Alaska Criminal Justice Information.

Alaska Criminal Justice Information may be obtained by submitting a request based on name search, there is a fee for an Alaska Criminal Justice Information search, please contact the Alaska State Troopers for the fee.
